PROFILE

- Self-taught junior programmer with a passion for developing software and learning the techniques, practices and tools used on the job.
- Comfortable with various concepts from low level languages like Rust, that push me to learn how everything works under the hood, getting rid of all the abstractions to have a much better understanding and growth as a developer.
- Due to previous jobs, developed great soft skills useful for any work environment: communication, critical-thinking, adaptability, team-work and being open to critics from my peers.

TECHNICAL EXPERIENCE

Knowledge

- Memory management, memory allocations, stack, heap, data structures and algorithms.
- Use of pointers, references, smart pointers, multi-threading, etc.
- Knowledge of front-end using HTML, CSS, JavaScript y React.
- Back-end applications using Node.js, Axum, MongoDB, SQLite y PostgreSQL.

Projects

- A "Simon Says" Mini-game published with GitHub pages.
- A page to register and find camping sites. With log in, reviews and comments.
- Back-end API with CRUD operations get and create quotes from famous books.
